COAST RESIDENTS PROTEST AGAINST OCEAN SHORE.

SAN MATEO, Nov. 27—The coastside of San Mateo county now has a transportation fight on with the Ocean Shore Railway Company over the proposed scheme of that corporation to reduce the number of trains operating on their passenger schedule.

The needs of the trans-mountain residents, both present and future, in this regard, are being safeguarded by the Coast Side Promotion Association. M. B. Johnson of that organization addressed the Board of Governors of the Development Association on this subject at a special meeting Tuesday night. At that time Mr. Johnson explained that vast sums of money had been invested on the coast by various land companies on the understanding that a satisfactory passenger service would be maintained by the Ocean Shore, and further, that the many homeseekers who had built in that district had the same understanding.

After he had clearly laid before the Board of Governors the harm which would result not only to this district but to the whole county by any reduction of train service, the following resolution was adopted.

"Whereas, the Ocean Shore Railrailroad Company contemplates materially reducing its present passenger train service, and

"Whereas, the laying off of trains as contemplated would seriously affect the welfare and prosperity of the patrons of said road as well as greatly impair their present conveniences for going to and from San Francisco by means of said road, the only rail communication touching the territory in question, now therefore

"The Board of Governors of the San Mateo County Development Association does hereby petition the Railroad Commisson of the State of California to take into consideration the handicap a reduction of the present passenger service on the ocean side will be to the general development of San Mateo county and respectfully urges the Railroad Commission that, in the interests of all concerned, the present service be maintained."

It is believed that the Railroad Commission will regard the plea of the coastside residents with favor and that the petition of the Ocean Shore for a reduction in service offered will not be allowed.

Inconsistencies in the telephone rates in this county of which there are many, have been called particularly to the attention of the commission which at this time has that subject under consideration.

An informal dinner welcoming W. W. Chapin, the new publisher of the Call, to the peninsula, will be held under the direction of the Development Association at San Mateo shortly.

FORMER GARDENER A VERY THRIFTY PERSON.

Asa E. Hull petitioned in the Superior Court of San Jose for letters of administration on the estate of Frederick J. Gleichner, who was killed a few days ago by being hit by a fast train at Edenvale. The court proceedings disclose the fact that the old man had amassed considerable property during his 17 years employment as gardener for E. A. and J. O. Hayes of San Jose.

His estate consists of real estate in the Reed addition of an estimated valued at $1500, cash in bank amounting to $500, 1000 shares of the stock of the Modern School of Business and Correspondence, 300 shares of the Kansas Co-operative Refining Company of South Dakota, 10 shares of preferred and 10 of the common stock of the St. Paul, Rochester & Dubuque Electric Railroad of Minnesota.

Two daughters, Sophie Gleichner of San Carlos and Marie Gleichner of Redwood City are the heirs.

Ross & Ross of this city are attorneys for the petitioner, who has been asked to take out the letters.

Gleichner was hit by the northbound "Lark" at Edenvale November 12 last, as he was wheeling his personal effects to the station, where he was to take the train and begin his trip back to Germany, where he expected to pass the remainder of his days. He mistook the "Lark" for the train he was to take, and while crossing the track was instantly killed.

Popular Lady Wedded.

Miss Louise M. Roussel of Belmont, a popular member of the Native Daughters, was married in San Francisco, August 28th to David F. Burridge, a well known business man of the metropolis. The bride was for a long time the assistant to the grand secretary of the Native Daughters. She is a graduate of a San Francisco high school and took a course at Stanford.

Heavy Tax Collections

Tax Collector McSweeney completed the collection of the first installment of taxes on Monday, the final week being the busiest the office has yet had. His total collections, amounting to $389,853, exceed those of any previous year. The collections of city taxes amount to $20,632.60. This is also an excellent showing.

VALUE OF UNITY IN PROMOTION WORK

W. J. Martin Explains Necessity for Inter-County Effort in Peninsula Development

"Team work to unify the peninsula interests and efforts of San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties is the idea of W. J. Martin, vice president of the San Mateo County Development Association, for stimulation of San Francisco's industries and the peninsula's prosperity, says the San Francisco Call editorially.

"Mr. Martin has been reading the Call's editorials on the development of the peninsula and he rises to add a word to their purpose. A more dynamic realization of the community of interests which lies between the several counties is urged by this active and aggressive leader of progress in our neighbor county—and he speaks truly.

"The establishment of a harbor control board of San Francisco bay, which would have a jurisdiction extending over the entire harbor area from Dumbarton or the proposed San Jose harbor to Carquinez straits, would give an official aspect to the team work that is needed, but such an official body would need to be established by law.

"But an unofficial organization, an intercounty civic association, could do much to cement the interests of the peninsula. Development of the various sections of the city would be slow indeed if there were not district improvement clubs to look out for the interests of their neighborhoods. The development of cities and counties would be slower without the strong efforts of the commercial and civic leagues that work for their interest. San Mateo county would have gone long without reduced railroad fares if it had not been for the activities of the San Mateo Development Association.

"If the principle of development and promotion associations is successful among the smaller units, why not an association that would have for its purpose the furthering of the interests of a larger geographical unite, like the peninsula. Geographically, socially, commercially, the interests of San Francisco and its peninsula neighbors are identical. Politically we are separate, but prosperity knows no county boundaries when it starts on its way."

PROFESSOR MURRAY WILL LECTURE ON THE TURKS

An entertainment which should be of interest to every thinking person of Redwood City is that now being planned by the Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church, December 6th, at the Alhambra. Mr. G. Stanley Murray, until recently a professor in the famous university of Constantinople, has been engaged to give his illustrated lecture on the pre-eminent topic of the day, "Constanitnople and the Turks." Mr. Murray has been speaking to capacity houses since his return from this war-cursed country, and the people of Redwood should count themselves fortunate to be able to hear such a prominent speaker on such a prominent topic. Those who will attend the lecture will come away with a far clearer understanding of what this country means to the world.

Besides the lecture there will be two other numbers on the program, one a whistling solo and the other a humorous selection by some of the Stanford boys.

Bondsmen Complete Contract

Work on the portion of the $18,000,000 State highway between South San Francisco and Burlingame, which was discontinued when Contractor F. R. Ritchie failed on his State contract, was resumed Saturday by the Ransome-Crummy Company, bondsmen for Ritchie. The work will be prosecuted to completion by the bondsmen. The stretch is about 5.4 miles long and is the first piece of highway contracted for under the recent $18,000,000 bond issue.

J. A. Folger is confined to his bed on account of illness. Mr. Folger, who was taken ill Saturday at his country home at Woodside, was taken to St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco where he is said to be getting on as well as can be expected.

Ladie's and children's sweaters at Einstein's. A large assortment to choose from.

SPRING VALLEY GAINS SIX MILLION GALLONS.

Superintendent W. B. Lawrence of the Spring Valley Water Company is installing at Ravenswood a "booster" pump that will increase San Francisco's daily water supply by 6,000,000 gallons, an addition of 10 per cent to the amount now used.

In order to do this an 800 horse power motor is being installed, one of the largest known. This water will not come from new sources of supply but will simpy be used for increasing the capacity of the feeder lines from the water already impounded.

The main line from Niles to San Francisco is tapped at Ravenswood, where an arch pipe fifty feet high will be constructed and the water forced through this by the big centrifugel pump, increasing the supply to the Belmont reservoir by 6,000,000 gallons daily. At Belmont the water is driven up into a tower which gives it sufficient gravitation to carry it on to San Francisco.

There are already 16,000,000 gallons of water pumped into San Francisco every day from the transbay reservoir alone and this addition will increase it to 22,000,000.

Lots of blankets at all prices at Einsteins.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Carrington are entertaining Mr. Carrington's mother, whose home is at Monterey.

SYMPTOMS OF CONSUMPTION

Yield to Vinol.

The medical profession do not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease.

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.)

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

"KNOW THYSELF"

Very few persons ever realize the priceless value of the ancient counsel, "Know Thyself." How many people realy know themselves? Probably nine hundred and ninety nine out of every thousand reach the age of sixty before acquiring even the rudiments of self knowledge. The majority of us die before acquiring even this rudimental self acquaintance. One may choose any one of his friends—even the wisest of them—and instantly tell him something obvious of his own character or actions, and be met with an indignant but sincere denial. The trait indicated may have been plainly obvious to his friends, or even to passing acquaintances, but he has never discovered it.

Self-knowledge is difficult because it demands intellectual honesty. It demands that one shall not gloss the facts, that one shall not be afraid of any unpleasant discoveries one may make in the search.

People might well make a habit of sitting down quitely and trying to analize themselves. While they may meet with but imperfect success, the habit is an excellent one. Its interests is an unexhaustible one and grows steadily.

REASON FROM VAIRYING MOTIVES.

A law for a single term in the presidential office has now received the endorsement of two men prominent in the political life of the nation. President Taft and William Jennings Bryan have each taken a firm stand in favor of the measure, though possibly prompted by varying motives.

The stress laid by Mr. Bryan upon a single term in the presidency is easily understood. He put the demand into the Baltimore platform, and he may be depended upon to maintain a propaganda in Congress for the submission of a constitutional amendment to the states. He may even hope to see such an amendment ratified before 1916. More than three-fourths of the states will have Democratice majorities in their legislatures this winter and hence are morally committed to the declaration of the party platform.

But, beyond Congress and the state legislatures, Mr. Bryan possibly hopes to seriously embarass Mr. Wilson as a candidate for a second term by a constant reminder of the pledges of the platform upon which he secured his first term. At least, Mr. Bryan seems to be playing good politics with his advocacy of the single term.

Just what construction may be placed upon the stand of Mr. Taft at this time may be a different question. In his speech before the Lotus Club in New York the President said many felicitous things, yet in declaring for the single term his hearers may possibly have been reminded of the old fable of the fox and the sour grapes. Nevertheless, the argument he advanced is certainly worthy of serious consideration. In effect he said, and possibly speaking in the light of experience, that under the present rule efficincy is lost sight of in the last year of the first term in the effort to secure a second.

In all of this political juggling, if such it might be called, one fact stands out strongly, and that is the growing sentiment among the people for a constitutional limitation of the tenure of this high office. The monumental fact towering above all other results of the late election was the emphatic repudiation of the third term, and of the power of the people to draw the line where Washington and Jefferson placed it, and where the Republican party drew it against Grant and Roosevelt.

San Joaquin's Advice to San Mateo.

San Joaquin county with its 238 miles of improved highways, which were constructed at a cost of $1,890,000, for which the county was bonded, does not desire to meddle with other people's affairs, but cannot refrain urging San Mateo county in a neighborly way to go ahead with its plan to expend $1,250,000 in the improvement of its highways. Experience has taught San Joaquin county that in the space of a very few months its good roads, which are second to none in the nation, have proven a boon to the whole county and have put us on the map with greater emphasis than ever was noted in the days of mud and ruts. Good roads are by far the best investment a community can ing on earth could induce the peomake, and once having them nothple to forgo them, even at triple their expanse. Improved highways enhance land values, making transportation a delight and reduce the cost of getting goods to market to the miniumu expense. They bring both ends of the county together and make the furthermost resident in reality a suburbanite.

Nothing will prove so attractive to travelers as good roads, and Stockton's experience teaches that hundreds visit that city every week now to scores that formerly came in the course of a month. San Mateo would benefit even more than interior counties perhaps, by reason of the fact that its main highway would be the avenue of travel for the thousands who go up and down the State. The improvement would increase traffic over the highway, bring more money tothat section and give San Mateo county more publicity of the paying kind than anything else could do with even a greater expenditure of money, and all this to say nothing of the comfort, convenience and joy of living that goes with good transportation facilities—Stockton Independent.

LATE NEWS FROM SANTA CLAUS—COMING DEC. 20.

The Christmas tree and Christmas festival to be held on the evening of December 20th at the Alhambra is absorbing the interest of the ladies and children who are to take part in the affair.

The students of Notre Dame are busily engaged in preparing a program which promises to equal if not excell that of last year. The brilliancy of these youngsters was enthusiastically commented upon at their last public appearance and the perfect training exhibited not only spoke volumes for the untiring efforts of the teachers of this private school but afforded an entertainment that is still pleasantly remembered by all who attended the festival of last year.

Many hundreds of pretty toys and games have been provided and every child attending the entertainment will receive more than the price of admisson in toy value. Tickets are now on sale at the stores of P. A. Ryan and the A. D. Walsh Co.

Bromfield Wedding Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bromfield are spending their honeymoon in Southern California. Their marriage, which had been set for Thanksgiving took place unexpectedlyu last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Knowles, in San Jose. The former Miss Lorine Knowles has spent the past few weeks in San Francisco as the guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Bromfield, at the Bella Vista apartments. The young people's sudden determination to be married at once has caused much pleasurable excitement among a host of friends here and on the peninsula.

Interesting Afternoon at Club

An afternoon of unusual interest was afforded the Woman's Club on Thursday when Mrs. L'Apphere Crook, who has charge of the fancy dancing at Robles gymnasium, Stanford University, presented a program of folk and esthetic dancing. Mrs. Cook was assisted by Miss Wishar, Miss Yoder and Mr. Morgan, all of whom contributed largely to the pleasure of the afternoon. The program follows: Russian Cossack dance; Estudiantina, Spanish dance; Carnival of Venice dance; Russian court dance,duet; piano solo, Miss Yoder; "Will-o'-wisp," esthetic dance, violin solo, Miss Wishar; "La Feria," Spanish dance; esthetic solo, Mr. Morgan; "Dorothy," esthetic dance; violin and piano duet; solo from "Chapella," Mrs. Crook; piano solo, Miss Wishar; scarf dance; dances of the "Priestess of Isis," a social hour with light refreshments followed.

MAKES MEN SMILE WHEN THEY PART WITH COIN

The San Mateo County Development Association is fortunate in having for its clerk and collector, Mr. F. L. Eskward. He has a way about him that appeals to those from whom he collects monthly dues and they apparently settle with delight and pleasure, in fact they are glad to see him come around. Every monthly contributor to the association pays promptly and it is safe to say that not more than ten are delinquent. This certainly is a big showing for Mr. Eskward, for men of less courage would have given up the work long ago, but Eskward's courteous manner and pleasing ways make an impression on the contributor which he cannot resist and he advances his dollar with a feeling of pleaure and sometimes with a smile. Mr. Eskward is to be congratulated on his success for through his efforts the association, which has done so much for the peninsula, receives the sinews of war to continue its campaign for the good of the peninsula and particularly San Mateo county.

FORESTERS IN COSTUME CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING

The masquerade ball given under the auspices of the Foresters of America in the Alhambra Wednesday evening was one of the most successful affairs ever held in this city. The hall was crowded to the doors with gay dancers in every conceivable costume. After unmasking the large crowd enjoyed itself until five o'clock. The music furnished by Marckgraf's orchestra of San Francisco was catchy, inspiring and well timed, so that those in the dreamy waltz went around the hall in a whirl as if swung by some unseen power, so easy and light was the step of the dancers. The Foresters may well feel proud of the success of the event which was easily the affair of the season.

THANKSGIVING AT LOCAL CHURCHES

Union Service at the Methodist Church Special Feature of Day's Observances

Thanksgivings Day was given fitting observance by the various religious denominations of this city. The chief event of the day's observance was the union service of the Protestant churches held at the Methodist church in the evening.

At St. Peter's Church a goodly congregation assembled in the morning for the Thanksgiving mass. The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies provided by Mrs. J. B. Coryell. The musical program, which included some special Thanksgiving hymns and anthems and a sweet solo by Mrs. Crabtree, was an attractive feature of the service. The Rector's sermon called attention to cause for especial gratitude on the part of the members of St. Peter's parish for the great blessings that have come to the church in its preservation clearing past trials and its present renewed life with promises of future good works.

At the union services at the Methodist Church in the evening a large congregation assembled for an unusually helpful service. The music rendered by the Congregational choire was excellent, while Mrs. Crabtree sang a beautiful solo. The Rev. Mr. Stevens offered the prayer, Roy W. Cboud read the Presidents proclomation, and Rev. Mr. Young read the Scripture lesson. The sermon, preached by the Rev. David Crabtree, was a strong argument for a deeper lying basis of gratitude than the material or temporal conditions of life. He showed how individuals were often mistaken in what seemed for the moment a blessing or what seemed a curse; also communities or nations had frequent reason to change opinion as to the nature of some new condition; that the real standard of judgment as to cause for thanksgiving lay deep among the real issues of life and become a part of one's nature as one grew more conscious of the overweening spirit for good, the Christian's Jesus, which moves steadly forward bringing about always in the end what is for the best for the human race.

New Actions in Superior Court.

The East San Mateo Land Company has commenced an action in the Superior Court against Emma Rose and the Hibernia Bank to recover the sum of $193,000. The complaint alleges that W. H. O. Bear and W. H. Hay entered into an agreement in November, 1907 with Emma Rose, formerly Miss Hayward, whereby plaintiffs agree to purchase 700 acres land east of the Southern Pacific Company's tracks at San Mateo for $350,000. The sum of $100,000 was to be paid at the time of the sale and a mortgage given on the property for the balance. Plaintiff on paying $82,000 requested the defendant to remedy a defect in the title of the land as per the agreement made as her title to it was not good and not merchantable. Several attempts were made by plaintiff to have Mrs. Rose make her title good but she neglected to do so. The plaintiff subdivided the land, graded it, put down sidewalks and sewered same, expending a large sum of money in doing so and was unable to convey any of the property to intending purchasers on account of said defect in the title and has been thereby damaged in the sum of $193,000. Mrs. Rose on March 23, 1910 assigned her mortgage to the property to the Hibernia Bank for $262,000, the amount due her from plaintiff. The land in question is a large tract of land along the march and east of the railroad at San Mateo and formerly owned by the late Alvinza Hayward. O. Bear subdivided the property into lots and sold a great many of them. United States District Atorney John L. McNab is the attorney for plaintiff.
